

Give to go Green fundraising events

The 6 week time frame for our fundraising to renovate the Parish Room starts today. So far we have four events organised :-

1.A Baroque Concert in Pettistree church. At 4pm on Sunday 27th October by 'The Delightful Companions'

2.An Illustrated talk on the 'Life, Glamour & Art' of Doris and Anna Zinkeisen, artistic sisters of the mid-20th Century. This will be in Pettistree church at 4pm Sunday 10th November

Anna Zinkeisen painted a mural, in St Botolph's church, Burgh, Suffolk.<sup>[15]</sup> showing birds of the Bible (c. 1967), in memory of her husband Col. Guy Heseltine This mural was apparently originally commissioned in 1962, and was intended to be a memorial for the late King George VI (1895-1952) for the Royal Chapel at Windsor but was cancelled in 1964!

3.A talk on Wildlife by Darren Tansley, on Wednesday November 13th at 7.30pm in Pettistree Village Hall. Darren lives in Pettistree and is the River Catchment Co-ordinator for the Essex Wildlife Trust and Chairman of the UK Water-Vole steering Group.

4.Mr Jim Jarvie OBE who before becoming chairman of our Village Hall was Head of Operations Central UK Border Force. The title is 'Vice-Consul, Customs, Cannabis and Cocaine' at 4pm Saturday 16th November – Some of us have heard Jim before and know he is an interesting and entertaining speaker, also he's promised me that we won't have heard these stories before!

Please let your friends, and all those you feel would be interested in any of these events, know that they are happening. Details will be found on the new Pettistree Parish Council website and at the back of the church.
